White Plains, North Carolina

Dedication

To a person who has always had a song in her heart and has been a great friend to all the seniors of White Plains High.

Her sweet smile and pleasant manner have brightened the hallways and classrooms on our most trying days.

For your unceasing efforts of which we are often unaware; your warm friendliness; your patience and understanding; and your loyal devotion to the students at White Plains High School we, the class of '57, take great pride in dedicating this edition of the PLAINSMAN to you...Mrs. Christina Christian.

Scenes we'll remember . . .

CLASS SONG

(Tune to "Mockin' Bird Hill")

When the sun in the morning peeps over the hill,
The "Class of Fifty Seven" will be making its will.
To find its place in the future and fill,
With the fondest of memories in our hearts still.

To the teachers and parents we're reminding you,
Of our love and loy-al-ty, fondest and true.
We'll begin life anew just where it seems we get thru,
But a bright happy future we are looking to.

Our studies and pranks and happy days of fun,
We'll never forget when the battle is won.
But will onward and upward go, striving to be true,
To Dear White Plains Hi and each and all of you.

Chorus:
Tra-la-la, Tweedle-de-de-de
We've had lots of fun,
But a-las, dear classmates, a new day's begun,
To those left behind who'll be struggling still,
Good luck to yau all as you climb up the hill.

CLASS POEM

Class of '57, we're proud to be
Waving our banner for all to see.
As we leave this honored place behind
We hope that other classes will also shine.

Seniors, are we really what we're called?
Found everywhere walking in the halls.
Worrying the teachers and principal, too,
While trying so hard to be good and true.

Parents, friends, and teachers, too,
Helped us work the twelve years through
Striving toward our goal and motto
Work and play we all did do.

Thanks, now, we want to say
Before our footsteps turn another way,
Maybe in the days to come
We can show you what you've done.

Long and hard the years have been
But they're almost at an end.
Memories were both good and bad
But they were part of all we had.

Now the years are at a close
And we all are on our toes.
Conduct and courage lead to honor
Is our aim for tomorrow.

Class History

Having come through the classes of these great teachers, Mrs. Childress, Mrs. Chilton, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Badgett, Mrs. Hutchens, Miss Webb, Mrs. Sisk, Mrs. Lawrence, Mrs. Simpson and Mr. Cox, we the seniors of 1957 docked our ships of education in high school. We were a frightened group, for we were not accustomed to all this hurry and bustle. We began to feel like the men on Columbus' ship--we wanted to turn back. Quickly we got used to this new life and decided it would be fun to "sail on."

Our freshman year, Mrs. Patterson was our captain. Our outside activities were few, with only a couple of parties, but we let our aggressiveness and good taste be seen by electing Brenda Draughn Smith, Halloween Queen.

During the first half of our tenth grade year, Mr. Comer was our homeroom teacher but upon his departure Mr. Reece became our guide. One of the most interesting things that happened this year was the tour our General Business Class made of the town of Mount Airy under the direction of our teacher Mrs. Patterson. At the end of the school year Mr. Reece accompanied the class to Guilford Battle Grounds, where we had a picnic and enjoyed looking at some statues of our Revolutionary Heroes. This trip was truly worth while and we shall long remember it.

Then we were Juniors! Our homeroom teacher was Mrs. Pearl H. Starling and our class officers were: Susan Nichols, President; Ernestine Marshall, Vice-President; Betty Jean Dollyhigh, Secretary; and Ann Badgett, Treasurer.

Dan Cupid was instrumental in the loss of a number of our girls, so 17 of us set out to make a great success of this, one of the most important years of our life.

It was our pleasure, this year, to entertian the Seniors with the traditional Junior-Senior Banquet. We had a great deal of fun planning the banquet and raising the moeny with which to finance it. This was done by selling cards, furniture polish and refreshments at ballgames. The banquet was held May 18, 1956 at the Reeves Y.M.C.A. The theme "Garden of Memories" was carried out in the decorations and entertainment.

Another highlight of this eventful year was the Junior Play "Mammys' Lil' Wild Rose," which was given on April 6, 1956.

In September, 1956, 11 girls and 8 boys returned to their final year in school, having acquired Blaine and Sue Brintle recently returned from Hawaii. Our class got of to a good start under the leadership of our newly elected class officers: Jimmy Snow, President; Susan Nichols, Vice-President; Sue Brintle, Secretary and Frances Brintle, Treasurer. Miss Simpson, our advisor, helped us select the "Plainsman" staff, class colors, flower, motto, mascots and superlatives.

This year the Juniors gave the Junior-Senior Banquet in our honor. It was tremendously enjoyed by all.

Graduation at last!

As we dock our ships on the opposite shore we look back over these years of sailing with many happy memories. Here is a challenge to each of us--that we might have the courage and will-power of Columbus on his voyage--that we will sail on, sail on and on.

Class Prophecy

Since I have dark skin and black hair, the seniors think I have gypsy characteristics and therefore, they have appointed me as phophet of the class. Let's get the crystall ball rolling and see how the seniors of '57 look ten years from now.

I see Sammy on the deck of the world largest battleship. He is now the captain in command.

Thamer is now married and has settled in the Redbrush section. At the last count he had ten children, all with curly hair.

Is that Monroe I see in the Agriculture Department of White Plains High? "Yes" that's him. He has taken over as Agriculture teacher.

Alvin has just graduated from State College where he majored in Automotive Engineering. He now fixes his own fenders.

Who is that I see in the office of the governor? Why, it is Jimmy Snow. He is the govenor's own personal secretary.

I see Blaine at the front of a large classroom. Is he a student? "No". He is the Geometry teacher. He teaches Algebra in his spare time.

Now what and who is that behind the counter of the Chase-Manhatten bank? Why it is Fox Atkins. He is the preseident of the largest bank in New York.

What's this? Is that Ann B. Stewart? Yes it is. What's she doing? Why, she is the head model for Dior. Watch that waistline Ann.

I see Susan Nichols teaching Judo at State College. Watch those holds, Susan.

How can this be? Is that Frances Brintle? It is. She has the dream job of every girl... private secretary to Elvis Presley.

Barbara now owns all the beauty shops in Mt. Airy. Make thos waves stayput, Barbara.

I see Billie Jo singing with Guy Lombardo and his orchestra. Pretty good, don't you think?

Patsy Creed is now the proud owner of the new Chevy convertible and she got an extra feature...a boy.

Glenda Simpson now lives in Chicago where she looks after her husband's pet dogs.

Betty Jean Phillip is now only woman in Congress. She has been elected for her second term. Veto those bills, Betty Jean.

Carol Fletcher is now operator of the world's largest race track. She even drives her own race car.

It can't be me. Oh! but it is. I am now President of the United States in 1965. Boy, am I happy.

With that, classmates, I wish to leave each of you to your fate, and may that fate be kind to you.

THOMAS SISK
Class Prophet.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of '57 having spent twelve long years in school, now take leave of the "good old days", leaving these treasured gifts to the fellow students and faculty.

To Mr. Reece, we leave the quietness of the halls of dear old White Plains.

To the Faculty we leave our appreciation for patience and guidance which have laid the foundation of our lives.

To the Juniors, we leave the enjoyment of graduation and the enjoyment of entering the world as a graduate of dear old White Plains High.

During the last few years we have acquired some well-known articles, which we now leave to the uprising Seniors. They are as follows:

Fox Atkins leaves his ability to learn English to Billy Kidd. Come on, Billy, do your best! Fox did.

Blaine Brintle leaves his ability to baby sit to Don Atkins. Better be careful, Don, or they might cry.

Sue Brintle leaves her ability to marry a sailor to Lula Potts.

Frances Brintle leaves to Jimmy Hicks her ability to skip class. Watch out! Jimmy, you might get caught.

Sammy Brintle leaves his love of the Home-Ec. Room to Wade Cruise. Wade, don't forget, GIRLS ONLY!

Thamer Cox leaves his Most Handsome title and curly hair to Wayne Johnson. Come on Wayne, comb it good!

Patsy Creed wills her ability to wear a diamond to Millie Marshall. Millie, it may be sooner than you think.

Billie Jo George leaves her ability to sing to Jo Anne Bryant.

Barbara Hall leaves her height to Frances Simmons and Phyllis Scott. Come on girls, you're doing pretty good!

Carol Fletcher wills her flirty ways to Don Haynes. See what you can do about that, Don.

Susan Nichols wills her ability to type to Lawrence Wilson. Lawrence, you can beat her if you try real hard.

Betty Jean Phillips leaves her skill of washing dishes in the lunchroom to Pat Jackson. Don't burn your hands, Pat.

Monroe Riggs leaves his acting ability to Janet Badgett. Janet, you may make a career out of it.

Glenda Simpson wills her skill of driving to Libby Marshall and Wendolyn Venable. You girls had better get some practice.

Jimmy Snow leaves his skill of driving a school bus to Ralph Huffman and Jimmy Childress. Boys, please look the way you're going!

Thomas Sisk leaves his ability to work Algebra to J. B. Schmidt. J. B. it's harder than you think.

Ann B. Stewart wills her ability to make A's to Billy Cassell. Billy, you will have to study hard to do that.

Ernestine M. Thomas wills her ability to play basketball and to be mischievous to Byrona Bunker.

I, Alvin Scott, will my position as officer in all the clubs to Georgia Harrell and Gene Draughn. That is an honor, so do your best.

In witness hereof, we, the Senior Class of '57, do hereby sign and seal this our last will and testament on the 6th day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-six.
